

OWNERS OF FOREIGN SHIPS WILL APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

Prepare to Take Liquor Ruling to Highest Court in Land

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The supreme court of the United States will be asked to issue an order restraining the government from enforcing the prohibition law against transportation of liquor on foreign ships touching at American port and on American ships outside of American coastal waters.

Counsel for the ship lines which instituted the original proceedings, before Federal Judge Hand in New York, were here today preparing the necessary papers for submission to associate Justice Brandeis. Being assigned to the second circuit, in which New York city is located—Mr. Brandeis would have supervision over matters before Judge Hand's court and a petition for a supercedas order to hold up that court's dismissal of the ship companies' injunction case would be filed with him.

If granted the order would prevent interference with normal operation of the fleets of the appellants until the legal points at issue had been decided by the supreme court.

Unless counsel for the shipping companies can prevail upon Justice Brandeis to issue the order, federal officers normally will be required to proceed to enforce the statute as soon as Judge Hand formally signed the final order. Precedents of the supreme court are not inclined to grant injunctions while the court is in session preferring that such requests shall be submitted to and accepted upon the court itself. At present the court is in recess and will not again meet until November 13.

Administration officials indicated today that, even in the absence of a specific restraining order the government was not inclined to enforce strictly the liquor ruling promulgated by the department of justice so long as its legality was before the court. Temporary regulations which would be in effect pending a final decision were laid before Secretary Mellon today but were withheld from publication until they had been reviewed by Attorney General Daugherty. It was understood that enforcement agents would be instructed in these regulations that a certain latitude was permissible both as regards medicinal alcoholic supplies and stocks designed for "grocery" crews, in cases where such issuance was a legal requirement of their government or a long established custom.

CALIFORNIA COURT WHIPS PRISONER

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—J. Walter Hanby, justice of the peace, today enforced a court order against Robert M. Kitterman, with two sharp lefts to the chin and a right to the defendant's middle.

Kitterman had objected to a court ruling in his case and was said to have shouted:

"To hell with this court. I am going back to Illinois where they won't treat me that way."

Justice Hanby assessed a fine of $10 for contempt of court. Kitterman paid and later was said to have applied "an opprobrious epithet" to the court. For the latter alleged offense the court demanded an apology. Kitterman refused to make whereupon the justice enforced the order with his fists.

Payment of the fine and an apology were made forthwith.

INCREASE IN BUSINESS SHOWN

SALVATION ARMY LEADER PRAISES THE CHORUS GIRL

Says Broadway Girl is Biggest Hearted and Squar- est in World

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Captain Rebba Crawford of the Salvation Army, the lass in blue is absorbing some of Broadway's limelight in her battle to hold prayer meetings on the steps of the Gaiety Theatre, today came to the defense of the much abused chorus girl.

"Salvation Nell" made the defense of Broadway morals when she received a reporter at tea in Greenwich village apartment where she is recovering from a slight attack of nervousness which she suffered after being arrested for obstructing traffic. Discharged in court, she purposes to resume her meetings as soon as again feel fit.

"I have never known finer people than those I have met on Broadway," declared Mrs. Crawford.

"The Broadway girl is the biggest hearted, the squarest and absolutely the most understanding girl I have ever known. If she's your friend, she is your friend, whether you are right or wrong. I'd take a bunch of chorus girls and put them against a bunch of school teachers or nurses any day as far as morality is concerned.

They often think that the city is filled with far more evil than the small town but that is not true. I know what small towns are like, for I have been in them in Georgia and Florida.

In a single year I have learned of more evil in a small town than I know of in a city in two years. One reason that there is less evil in a city like New York, than in a little town is because here there are so many things to engross the mind.

In the country young people have to such time to play around in the light of full moons and get into trouble. The crowds of cities are not conducive to sentiment.

PROBE SHOOTING OF MICHIGAN STUDENT

(By The Associated Press)
FINDLAY, O., Oct. 24.—Professor A. K. Hall of Wyandotte county will leave Upper Sandusky tomorrow for Ann Arbor, Michigan, to obtain the story of Theodore Reising, University of Michigan Junior, regarding the shooting of the student early Sunday at Carey, Ohio, by Andrew Greer, night watchman. Hall today concluded an investigation of the case at Carey but refused to divulge any of his findings.

Mayor Mulholland of Carey tonight issued a statement declaring that the shooting resulted from the refusal of Reising to hold up his hands when ordered to do so by Greer upon his arrest on a charge of disturbing the peace following alleged theft of salt and pepper shakers from a Carey restaurant and alleged tearing down of signs Greer fired as Reising advanced in a threatening manner. Mayor Mulholland said.

CALLING WIFE "BUM" CAUSED KILLING

(By The Associated Press)
HACKENSACK, N. J., Oct. 24.—The charge that his wife was a "bum" and not the knowledge that she had been criminally assaulted infuriated him to a proposal of a duel. ## ROSENFIELD ASKS REPUBLICANS TO VOTE FOR BONUS

Endorsed in Party Platform and Should Have Support

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 24.—Major Walter Rosenfield, chairman of the republican state central committee today issued a statement in which he urged Illinois voters to endorse at the polls November 7 the proposition to issue bonds to the amount of $55,000,000 that Illinois men may be paid a bonus for their service in the great war.

"The Republicans of Illinois," the statement said, "in its platform endorsed this measure at its state convention by unanimous vote and pledged its support. The Democratic platform is silent on the subject.

"Illinois is ample able to pay. Our only bonded debt is the issue for hard roads which is no burden on the taxpayer due to the receipts from automobile licenses and a $20,000,000 issue for waterways of which only $1,000,000 is outstanding and which will probably pay for itself when completed, by tolls and water power receipts.

The state today estimates the adjusted compensation issue will amount to only one mill tax covering a 20 year period.

"This measure in order to become a law must receive a majority of all the votes cast at the election and not merely a majority of the votes cast for the proposition.

"Every state which has voted on a measure of this kind has voted for it. I am sure Illinois is as patriotic as any state in the union and will support the referendum by an immense majority."

BURIED VICTIMS OF NEW YORK'S EAST SIDE FIRE

Crowds So Dense Police are Called to Clear Way for Funeral Cortage

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The East Side resounded this afternoon with wailing and lamentations during funeral services held for 11 of the 15 victims of the fire which swept a tenement house last Sunday.

So dense was the crowd of mourners that police reserves had to be called for one service up town and another downtown, to clear the way for the corteges. Long after the two lines of hearses had crossed East River spans on their way to the cemeteries, cries and sounds of mourning could be heard.

Another tragedy was narrowly averted at one of the funerals held at Fifth street. Just as the hearses were arriving and the crowd of mourners assembling a heavy iron ladder fell from a fire escape on a spot soon afterwards was filled with weeping humanity. No one was injured.

The fifth street service was held for six members of the family of Abraham Sugarman. Both Sugarman and his wife escaped.

More thousands attended the uptown service held at synagogue in 188th street. There Mrs. Nathaniel Silver buried her entire family—husband and four children.

After Mrs. Silver, grief-torn and shaking, had sobbed out a prayer for her dead, the caskets were closed and a rabbi spoke to the departed. On the way to the cemetery this procession passed the burned tenement. The wailing broke out afresh at the sight of the burned tenement. The walling of the smoke stained structure.

JUSTICE W. R. DAY RESIGNED FROM SUPREME COURT

Placed Resignation in Hands of President Harding Yesterday

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Associate Justice William R. Day of the supreme court placed his resignation today in the hands of President Harding to take effect Nov. 14, and it was accepted. By resigning, Justice Day will be able to devote his undivided attention to his duties as umpire on the American-German claims commission. His action will have the effect of placing him upon the retirement list of the court on full pay.

By delaying the date upon which his resignation will become operative, Justice Day will be eligible to participate with the other members of the court during the three weeks recess preceding the next meeting of the court on November 13, in conference for the decision of cases which have been argued at this term. It is expected he will make his last appearance on the bench of the highest tribunal on the day it reconvenes remaining while the court delivers its opinions.

In official Democratic circles here there is a belief that the vacancy will be filled by the appointment of a Democrat. Among those named as possible selection in Democratic circles are Senators Shields of Tennessee, Walsh of Montana, Pomerene, Ohio and Underwood of Alabama.

He soon succeeded to the post of secretary of state but in a few months resigned to become chairman of the American peace commission. To Paris at the close of the war with Spain. He was appointed to the supreme court by President Roosevelt in 1906.

DR. MILLER HONORED BY MASONIC BRETHREN

Reception Given for Woodson Citizen by Hospitalier Com- mandery K. T.—Many Visitors from Springfield

Dr. G. W. Miller of Woodson was signally honored at a reception given last night by Hospitalier Commandery, Knights Templar. Recently Dr. Miller was given the work of the 33d degree in Masonry, an honor which comes to comparatively few members of the order.

The event last night was arranged especially because of Dr. Miller's recent distinction. A group of twelve Masons of high degree came from Springfield to attend the reception.

In the earlier part of the evening an informal program was given. Norman Campbell sang a group of songs which were greatly appreciated with A. J. Donovan as the accompanist. Then W. O. Baumgartner gave a mystifying program of legerdemain. Mr. Baumgartner has the skill of a professional and the company thoroughly enjoyed his contribution to the entertainment.

After the serving of a splendid banquet, Julius G. Strawn presided as toastmaster. Among those who spoke informally were Richings J. Shand, Harry L. Smith, Clarence Bennett, G. A. Hulet, and Burke Vancil of Springfield; W. S. Camp, Dr. C. C. Cochran and E. E. Crabtree of this city.

All the speakers paid homage to Dr. Miller because of the service and sacrifice which his life exemplifies. Dr. Miller in response made it plain how greatly he appreciated the spoken tokens of esteem.

A telegram was read from Andrew Russell, who was prevented from attending. Other visitors from Springfield in addition to those already mentioned were Frank L. Hatch, Edward F. Irwin, Herman Pierik, Ezra F. Hazell, Harvey Solenberger, George W. Miller, and John A. Barber, commander of Elwood commandery, Springfield.

The committee which arranged this important Masonic event included J. G. Strawn, Dr. L. H. Clampt, and John S. Hackett.

DRY CANDIDATE SCORES M'BRIDE FOR HIS STAND

Says Failure to Vote on Referendum Mis- erable Mistake

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Refusal of Illinois prohibition leaders to recognize the legal rights of the wets to call the referendum to be voted on this fall is "essentially immoral" and a "miserable mistake," Allen D. Albert, a dry Democratic candidate for congressman at large, declares in an exchange of letters with F. Scott McBride, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

Mr. Albert in his final letter to Mr. McBride says:

"How can we condemn the boot-licker for not accepting the terms of a prohibition law when we ourselves propose not to accept the terms of an election law? Prohibition can afford to be beaten a thousand times; but it cannot afford to win only by conspiring to set aside the laws of the state."

The Anti-Saloon League superintendent in his letter to Mr. Albert declares the referendum was not one on the Volstead act but on "a false and impossible proposition."

"It practically says the four percent beer and light wine which may have any percentage is non-intoxicating."

Therefore Mr. McBride says the league is urging its supporters to refrain from voting on the referendum. Any man who would agree to be guided by a state-wide referendum of this kind in his vote at Washington, would be permitting himself to be made the tool of those interests within our country and without our country who have combined in a world wide movement to nullify the constitution," Mr. McBride says.

Mr. Albert replied:

"I shall vote 'no' in space provided by the referendum. I pray that the majority of the voters of Illinois will do likewise. I believe they would do so if it were not for the miserable mistake you are letter affirming. I think you should be adverse to prohibition the blame can never be lifted from your shoulders."

"In writing this letter I know well enough that whatever the loyalty of my devotion to prohibition I am forfeiting the support of your organization at the polls. I have never asked that support. I shall be altogether willing to abide by the result now if this letter awakens the prohibitionists of the state to the disaster of your course."

SURPRISE WITNESS IN I. W. W. TRIAL

He said, the Industrial Workers would let them pass.

"We wanted to cripple the packers and also we were opposed to the war," Townsend testified. "We used to say 'let them poison Uncle Sam's damned gunners.'"

Townsend testified that under the direction of Haywood he joined the various fighting branches of the military services with the purpose of spreading the I. W. W. doctrine among the soldiers.

A THOUGHT

We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves—Romans 15:1.

We are to be rewarded, not only for work done but for burdens that the brightest rewards will be for those who have borne burdens without murmuring—Andrew Bonar.

The number of those to be tried for murder in Marion has been increased to 77. One cannot avoid the feeling that the larger the number of defendants and indictments, the less will be the likelihood of proving charges and bringing about conviction.

The time was, only a few years ago when many people looked askance at football as a college sport merely to be tolerated. "But then days are gone forever" and now those in charge of football plans are worrying how to take care of the millions of people who want to see football games during the comparatively short season. The grand stand and bleacher facilities are not at all ample to take care of the people who are interested in this game.

It really seems a pleasure to Henry I. Green to discuss the proposed constitution for Illinois. No one can listen to this rapid fire speaker without realizing that he sincerely believes in the proposed constitution and advocates it because of his conviction that it means a great "forward step" for this state.

It was pointed out yesterday that the 18,000 words of the proposed constitution represents the best thought of the 102 delegates after three years of study and deliberation.

It is not an unusual thing for an Illinois legislature in five or six months' time to enact laws that cover 700 or 800 printed pages.

Certainly a comparison of these figures affords the proof of the painstaking care with which the proposed constitution has been outlined.

It is a hopeful thing that a great order pays special honor to a veteran member and explains that the reason for this homage is the fact that this man has lived a life of service and self-sacrifice.

Dr. G. W. Miller of Woodson is the man thus praised by the attitude of his fellows. Quite evidently this long time citizen of the county has consistently followed out the platitude, "Act well thy part, for therein the honor lies."

PUTTING IT UP TO THE VOTER

The Morgan county commissioners are consistent in reiterating their action whereby the people may express their views at the coming election on the matter of a special tax for the support of the tuberculosis sanatorium.

The commissioners have used their best efforts to economize in the handling of county business and with good results. They are not, however, able to save enough from general expenditures to make it possible to provide for the sanatorium from the regular county tax fund.

They have proposed a very modest tax, one not to exceed one mill on the dollar of valuation. The commissioners point out that the fund from such a tax is necessary if the institution is to be properly run and the mortgage debt paid off.

Since the sanatorium has been erected at a large expense and since there is an urgent demand for the service it can render, the board is acting in good faith in submitting to the people the question of providing a fund for the proper maintenance of the sanatorium. Evidently the commissioners feel that the people have a right to settle their own business in this matter.

MY golf is a joke and my tennis is worse,
And few people swim quite as badly as I;
But though to such sports I am far from averse,
I really don't shiver until summer's gone by.
Then me for the place where the ivories click,
And also where tenpins excitingly fall;
At such sports as these I'm decidedly slick,
I swing a mean cue and I roll a mean ball!

I'M versatile, too, in the sports that I know,
My pinhole game is exceeded by few,
At checkers I'm not at all stupid or slow,
I'll say that I click a good domino, too;
I like to get busy at Jack-pot or stud,
With hard-boiled old stagers, set-visaged and gruff,
Who hold the cards close and who go out for blood,
Who boast a steep raise and who throw a smooth bluff.

THE summer's all right, and I fall for its charm,
But autumn and winter are more to my taste,
When one can loaf 'round in a room that is warm,
And play at a game without sweating or haste;
I like the blue smoke that is thick as a cloud,
I like the male laughter that booms through the air,
My record outdoors doesn't do me so proud,
But indoors—oh boy, I'm a wiz and a bear!

D. A. R. HEAR ABOUT NEW CONSTITUTION

Henry Green of Urbana Discusses Proposed Document Before D. A. R. Members—Makes Strong Appeal for Its Adoption.

"Three years of the hardest work such a group of men ever performed was spent by your representatives in the writing of a new constitution for the state of Illinois," said Hon Henry I. Green of Urbana, chairman of the committee of the constitutional convention on submission and address, in a talk before the members and friends of Rev. James Caldwell chapter of the D. A. R. Tuesday afternoon. Thruout the address Mr. Green laid emphasis upon the care and conscientiousness with which each section of the proposed new basic law was written.

The auditorium of the D. A. R. home was filled to capacity by the members and their friends. A number of out-of-town guests were present, among whom were Mrs. Sue I. Vickery, Evanston, Ill.; Mrs. Emmaline Roberts and Mrs. Winnifred Gill, Virginia; Mrs. Jennie Burch and Mrs. Emma Calhoun, Franklin; Miss Amy Onken, Chapin; Mrs. Rena French Kessinger, Rome, N. Y.; Mrs. Henry Armentrout, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Mary Hamm, Concord; Mrs. Lydia Moss, Alexander and Mrs. Margaret Hall Kimber, Chicago.

The hostesses for the day were as follows: Mrs. Irene Black, Caldwell, chairman; Mrs. E. Buttrick, Mrs. Jennie Burch, Mrs. Emma Calhoun, Mrs. Katie Byrne, Mrs. Vera Caldwell, Mrs. Jennie R. Capps, Mrs. Louise H. Capps, Mrs. Grace D. Chapin, Mrs. Henrietta Clark, Miss Annie V. Clayton, Mrs. Lillian Cleary, Mrs. Minnie W. Cleary, Miss Clara Cobb, Mrs. Nellie B. Cox, Mrs. Lillian L. Danskin and Mrs. Sadie L. Darley.

Before the address Mrs. A. R. Gregory, with Frank Collins as accompanist, sang three songs, "Love is the Wind" by McFay, "Turn Ye to Me" an old Highland melody, and "Stars" by Harriet Ware. Miller Wier was called upon as a "son-in-law" of the American Revolution to tell about his visit to the D. A. R. headquarters while in Washington. Miss S. M. Fairbank presented a brief report on the Indian Pete in the Straw yard under the chairmanship of Miss Ellie Trane, which according to latest figures netted the chapter $138.70.

Many phases of the Constitutional convention and its work were touched upon by the speaker of the day, each item contributing to the single general impression that the work of that body had been performed simply, thoroughly and honestly, without dictation or influence from any class, creed, section or interest. According to Mr. Green no one of the convention members who worked thruout its sessions sought or encouraged support for any selfish interest.

Pays Jacksonville Tribune: Mr. Green paid passing tribute to Jacksonville and its literary and political leadership in commenting upon the preamble to the original Illinois constitution, written by Judge Samuel D. Lockwood, who came to Jacksonville in 1829, and whose name is upon the tablets of the Duncan Memorial. The preamble has been retained in substance as in the previous constitutions.

One of the greatest needs for a new constitution, the speaker said, lies in the need for a better fundamental basis for taxation, to allow the taxation of intangible property such as stocks and bonds and at the same time prevent duplication of taxes. A more equitable distribution of taxes would materially reduce the tax burden, he said.

Along with the widening of the taxing powers of the legislature should come a limitation of its appropriating power, to cut down taxation at the source. Of $171,000,000 appropriated by the last legislature, the speaker said, about eighty millions were appropriated the last day, including a forty million "omnibus" bill crammed full of concessions to local selfishness. All but about nine millions were appropriated on the last three days, and items were tacked on to public utility appropriations that did not properly belong there, Mr. Green said, while under the new constitution appropriation bills must be drawn up for specific authorized purposes with the expenditures of each department separate and itemized and printed and on the table in final form for three days before being voted on.

The Cook County Problem

The most pressing immediate need for a new constitution lies in the Cook County problem, according to Mr. Green. The reapportionment of the state, now overdue, will have to be made soon if the old constitution is continued in force, and this will give Chicago 47 per cent of the representation of both houses of the legislature, with impending rights of both majority and minority by limiting Chicago's control of the legislature and at the same time allowing her home rule in her own affairs. Chicago will have only one third of the State representation, and her house representation will be determined by the vote for governor, which gives her a smaller representation than a straight population representation. The proposed constitution is the last chance of the down-staters to settle the problem on so advantageous a basis, the speaker said.

Among other provisions of the new constitution praised by the speaker were those for an independent judiciary, making its own rules for court-room procedure, even to discretion in allowing bail to presumably habitual criminals; the open door for zoning and city-building laws; the consistent treatment of the women of the state as citizens; the open door for educational development; and the allowing of reading of the Bible without comment in the schools, avoiding criticism on the ground of religious suppression from both sides.

Lauds Documents Simplicity

Mr. Green lauded the simplicity of the document, which remains silent when in doubt, hampering lawmakers as little as consistent with the substantially unchanged bill of rights and the protection of the taxpayer, and comprises only 18,000 well-chosen words as compared with 19,500 in the 1870 constitution and fills a small pamphlet as compared with an 844 page book of laws passed in six months by the last legislature.

Mr. Green appealed to his auditors to read the address printed with the constitution itself and available at the banks of the city. He characterized attacks on the instrument for what it fails to do as short-sighted in the face of the improvements it does make and the latitude it allows for improvement thru the regular legislative channels.

The labor attack on it, he said, is conducted by a few individuals who wanted a pro-labor document in the bill of rights. He rested his case on the evidence of honesty and directness of purpose of the framers, and the gross incompetency of the instrument they seek to replace to satisfy the needs which the proposed constitution provides for.

HARD ROADS MEETING HELD AT MEREDOSIA

Representatives of cities and towns along the proposed new hard road between this city and Mt. Sterling met at Meredosia Tuesday evening.

Some time ago a meeting was held at Mt. Sterling and this meeting was a follow-up of that one. Plans were perfected to push the hard road proposition for these towns with the ultimate goal as Quincy.

The route from Quincy to Springfield via Jacksonville is several miles shorter than the present route thru Beardstown and it is believed that this will weigh heavily with state highway officials when the proposition is placed before them. A number of local hard roads boosters were at the meeting last night.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FOR WOODSON WOMAN

Mrs. Jesse Butler's Friends Gave Her a Pleasant Surprise Tuesday—Other Woodson News.

Woodson, Oct. 24.—A number of the friends and relatives of Mrs. Jesse Butler gave her a very pleasant surprise Tuesday, the affair being planned in honor of her fifty-seventh birthday. At noon a bountiful dinner was served and greatly enjoyed by all present. The afternoon hours were very pleasantly spent and when the guests departed it was with the hope that their hostess may have many more such anniversaries.

Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Powell, Mrs. W. G. Russell, Mrs. John Hoagland and Miss Jane Irlam attended the district missionary meeting at Northminster church in Jacksonville Tuesday. They were especially interested in the speech of Mrs. Echols, returned missionary from Siam where she was sent several years ago by the Springfield Presbytery. Mrs. Echols reported the receipt at her mission station of some garments made by the Woodson society, and this report was very gratifying to the local women in attendance at the meeting.

The Unity Workers of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Powell.

The Woman's club will hold a market at the Dorward meat market in Jacksonville next Saturday, Oct. 28.

A Sunday school social will be held at the manse of the Presbyterian church next Friday evening. The affair will be a Halloween social and the ticket of admission will be a Jack-O-Lantern. J. S. Findley of Jacksonville will make a brief address during the evening.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William Scholfield of near Lynnville had as guests Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Powell, Mrs. W. G. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. William Colton, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Colton and daughter; the party going over at the close of the church services Sunday morning. An excellent dinner was served, the table decorations being in keeping with Halloween and very attractive.

VOTERS TO DECIDE SANATORIUM TAX

County Board Determines to Submit Proposal as Originally Planned.

The board of county commissioners met Tuesday to discuss the advisability of rescinding previous action in ordering submitted to a vote of the people the proposition of levying an additional tax of not to exceed one mill on a dollar for the maintenance of the Morgan County tuberculosis sanatorium.

It was decided by the board after lengthy discussion that the original order to submit the proposition shall stand. This action was taken after the directors of the tuberculosis sanatorium, W. R. Turnbull, A. A. Curry and Dr. T. O. Hardesty, had been invited to express their opinion with reference to the proposition.

The whole matter was gone over thoroughly and it was the unanimous decision of both the tuberculosis board and the county commissioners that the only way to properly provide for the maintenance of the institution and to lift the mortgage of $125,000 on the property is by levying an additional tax above that allowed for county purposes.

It was pointed out that the board has suggested a tax not to exceed one mill on the dollar of valuation, and that it is the expectation of the board to levy not more than three-fourths of a mill. Such a tax would result in a fund of about $17,500. This the authorities figure, together with the money which can be used from the county tax, will make it possible to properly operate the sanatorium and probably in the course of five years to pay off the mortgage.

It was made clear in the discussion that the county commissioners think it an entirely proper matter to submit to the people a question of this kind as to whether or not they wish this small special tax levied for the operation of an institution which belongs to them and which was authorized by their vote.

WORK ON PAVEMENT IS PROGRESSING

Concrete Foundation on West College Avenue Probably Complete in Week's Time.

Work on the West College avenue pavement is progressing so satisfactorily that Inspector George Wiseman said last night that the Standard Paving Co., will no doubt have all the concrete foundation laid within a week's time, that is, if favorable weather continues.

The concrete curb and gutter has now been constructed to a point near West street and so this work will be concluded in the next two or three days. The concrete foundation has already been laid to a point a short distance west of Diamond street and the concrete mixing plant is now located at the corner of Diamond street. It will probably be next moved to the corner of Fayette street.

There is now no question but that the entire College avenue pavement will be completed before winter days. As already indicated, once the foundation is safely out of the way, the pushing of the job will be certain. The chances are that ample opportunity will be had for the spreading of the asphalt before continuously cold weather comes and if this should not be the case the asphalt can be spread even when the mercury is below the freezing point.

WILL NOT INCREASE TAX BURDENS IN STATE

Henry S. Green Defends Proposed Constitution from This Charge—Made Address to Chamber of Commerce Membership.

Henry I. Green of Urbana, member of the constitutional convention and now chairman of the committee seeking to familiarize the people of the state with facts about the proposed constitution, addressed a membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night.

It was a representative gathering and Mr. Green presented various phases of the constitution in a most forceful way. The speaker, who was introduced by J. H. Dial, devoted the larger part of his time to the discussion of the taxation features of the constitution.

Preceding Mr. Green's address Arnold Lovejoy sang a group of songs with violin obligato by Mr. Kritch and piano accompaniment by Mr. Munger. The audience thoroughly appreciated this splendid musical feature. At the close of his statement Mr. Green gave the opportunity for questions and this part of the program proved especially interesting. Later came a social hour when cider and doughnuts were served.

Mr. Green said that nothing could be further from the truth than the suggestion that the provisions of the proposed new constitution will add to the tax burdens of the people.

"On the contrary," he said, "the whole purpose and inevitable result of the adoption of this constitution will be to relieve the burdens of the taxpayer who owns visible property, by providing a workable system of compelling the payment of taxes by forms of wealth that are not now reached at all. There is no provision for any additional taxes upon visible property being levied under the proposed new constitution."

He went on to explain that under the present constitution the legislature has the power to levy an income tax but could not make any adjustment of the ad valorem tax, and the levying of an income tax now would therefore mean double taxation. The means is provided in the new constitution not only for the levying of an income tax but for the adjustment which would avoid double taxation.

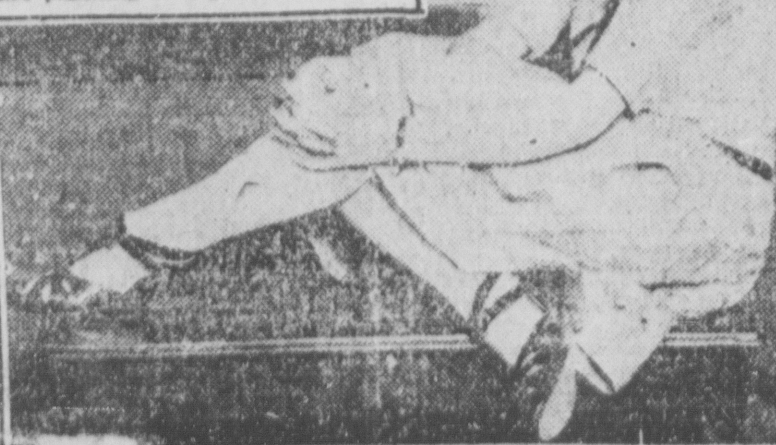

He pointed out also that in event income tax is levied in accordance with the new constitution, that the ratio could never be greater than three to one. This is a very different method from that followed in the assessment of the federal income tax.

In a later issue a full resume of Mr. Green's discussion of this taxation phase will be presented as a matter of great importance to those who are to vote upon the proposition next December.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hogan were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orsby Dawson of Webster avenue yesterday. They attended the Democratic meeting at the court house last night.

RICKEY EXPECTS TO BUILD UP BY TRADES

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 20.—Branch Rickey pilot of the St. Louis Nationals who is said to have built up a pennant contending machine from apparent cellar position material without the expenditure of a cent today said every effort would be made to build up the team via the trade route so that the Cardinals would capture the bunting next season.

Mr. Rickey said he would not consider trading Rogers Hornsby, champion home run hitter, and intimated that none of his catching staff which includes Ainsmith, McCurdy and Clemmons is on the market. Emphasized he was anxious to bolster up his pitching crew.

"My real hope is based upon the return of Austin McHenry, who has just undergone an operation, John Lavan, Bill Doak and Max Flack. They are good when they are right, and I believe we would have won the pennant this year had they been at the height of their game."

McHenry and Flack are outfielders, Lavan is an infielder and Doak is a twirler.

TREATMENT FOR LEPROSY CUTS DEATH RATE

Tokio.—The future of the leper is now bright and the disease being much less contagious than is generally supposed, a judicious system of segregation with the present methods of treatment will rid Korea of the menace, according to Mr. Mackenzie, head of the Fusan Asylum. The Mission to Lepers has three asylums in Korea.

"At one of these, nine patients have been discharged with no trace of the disease left," said Mr. Mackenzie. "Before the special treatment was begun in the Fusan Asylum, the yearly death rate always was above twenty-five percent. For the last year it stands at two and one-half percent, but as half the deaths resulted from typhoid it may be said that the death rate from normal causes was but one and one-quarter percent."

The government contemplates the erection of a large national asylum outside Tokio for the accommodation of lepers, of whom there are about 16,000 in Japan.

MISS AMELIA SEARS MADE FINE ADDRESS

Talks at Annual Meeting of Social Service League Last Night—Interesting Remarks Were Received.

An address by Miss Amelia Sears, assistant general secretary of the Associated Charities of Chicago, a report of unusual inspiration in its personal touches by Miss Ann Fowler, city matron, brief farewell remarks by President H. A. Perrin, and a vigorous appeal for the completion of the drive for this year's expense fund, by Judge Paul Samnell, were the high lights of the annual meeting of the Social Service league following dinner in the basement of Grace church last night. Almost 200 people were in attendance.

The report of the treasurer, A. C. Rice, showed that the league had risen from a deficit to a considerable favorable balance during the past year, representing a surplus of $5,774.90. A balance of $1,247.37 had been necessary only a $3,000 budget, half of which has been raised. In the opinion of Miss Sears, Mr. Perrin and Judge Samnell, all of whom from work in or co-operation with the local organization and from a knowledge of similar organizations elsewhere, there is no city in the state that has laid a better foundation for genuine social service work than Jacksonville.

According to Miss Sears, Jacksonville's social service spirit penetrates even to Chicago by reason of her attention to placing city youngsters on farms for the summer and her efficiency in inter-city co-operation.

Interest in Work Grows.

Interest in social service work has given and received influence from philanthropists, lawyers, architects, owners of industrial plants, church organizations, and even with some results in politics and government itself. Miss Sears asserted. No work is profitable to humanity that is carried on entirely en masse she said, and the study of the individual relationship is penetrating the largest of industries. The task of social service she defined as the stretching of public and private means to cover the needs of the development of mankind.

Several interesting cases of the reawakening of healthy ambition in lives crushed in the bad were given by Miss Sears from her own Chicago records. Miss Fowler, in addition to her annual report as city matron, told the story of a family raised from pauperism to self respect, self support and real citizenship thru the efforts of the local league during the past year.

Directors to fill the eight places falling vacant this year, to serve for three years as members of a board of 24, were named as follows: A. C. Rice, Rev. W. E. Spoonster, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Miss Margaret Moore, L. O. Vaught, Mrs. Lloyd Brown, Mrs. C. R. Short and A. T. Capps.

President Perrin's brief remarks centered about his satisfaction with the co-operation of Jacksonville people in the work of the league, and the need for cautious discrimination by trained workers to make charitable impulses factors for the rehabilitation of unfortunate people instead of their pauperization.

Judge Samuell in his talk took occasion to praise the founders and the persistent workers of the league, and called for a rising vote of appreciation to the president, who leaves after a number of years leadership. Mrs. William Barr Brown brot the program to a close by the rendition of two songs, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," by Paul Liburda, and "From the Land of the Sky-Blue Waters" by Cadman.

Dr. George H. Yule, superintendent of the central district of Illinois Anti-Saloon league was present and asked leave of the president to speak a few words about the efforts of that organization, after which adjournment was had.

Elliott State Bank Building to Rise in '23

The people of Jacksonville and Morgan county will be very much interested in knowing that the new Elliott State bank building is to be erected in 1923 at the southeast corner of the square and East State street.

It will be remembered that more than a year ago the bank acquired title to the properties now occupied by J. Herman and Long's Pharmacy.

The bank building will represent the best ideas in the construction and equipment of such buildings. It was designed by F. W. Puckey and A. D. Jenkins, architects of Chicago, who have had wide experience in the handling of similar problems. These two architects have given the proposed building exhaustive study and in their work have received the most hearty co-operation and help from the officers of the bank. The resulting design is believed to embody the last word in the matter of convenience and efficiency and these ends have been obtained while giving due thought to the general appearance of the structure.

The contract for the cut stone to be used in the building has already been let and the stone will be ready for use at a date not later than March 1, 1923. At that time it is expected that work on the new building will begin. Facts shown in the plans are given.

Built of Bedford Stone
The new bank building has a 40 foot frontage being on the Public Square. The building is of fireproof construction throughout, with floor and roof construction of reinforced concrete. The exterior is of buff Bedford stone, designed in the Italian Renaissance style. The exterior is a perfectly frank expression of the interior arrangement of the building and has a simple dignity appropriate to its purpose.

The banking room, safe deposit department and private offices occupy the entire floor. The public lobby is accessible from both street fronts. A mezzanine floor at the west end of the banking room contains a directors' room and adjoining dressing room. At the east end of the banking room there is an open mezzanine on the top of the vault, which will be used for clerical work.

The basement of the building is accessible from the public lobby on the first floor by a generous stair-case which leads to an assembly room about 20x30 feet. This room and two large meeting rooms adjoining it are for the use of customers of the bank. Retiring rooms and toilets for men and women customers of the bank are also provided. The balance of the basement is used for storage space, rest rooms and toilets for employees, storage vault, boiler room, ventilating machinery, etc. The entire basement and banking room will be mechanically ventilated.

Interior Plans
Entering the first floor from the Public Square the visitor will pass between two private offices. On entering the banking room, the officers' platform are on either side of the entrance, each platform opening into one of the private offices above mentioned. The main stair to the basement lies between the north officers' platform and the outside wall. The public lobby widens out to the north wall of the building where the side entrance gives access to and from the street. The counter front extends from the south officers' platform east to a point just in front of the safe deposit vault, then turns north and then west, terminating at the vestibule of the side entrance. There will be seven cages. The cage equipment will be of the latest description. The safe deposit vault is placed on the first floor, directly opposite the main entrance into the banking room. There will be in the basement a storage vault of the same dimensions of the first floor vault. The floors, walls and ceilings of both the basement and first floor vaults will be of concrete 24 inches thick and heavily reinforced with structural steel.

The safe deposit vault will have an open hearth steel lining, and a 15 inch rectangular door. The same type of door will probably be used in the basement. Every detail of the construction of the vault work, including the concrete walls and their reinforcement, linings, doors, etc., will embody the very latest ideas in vault construction, and will be of precisely the same type and will employ precisely the same materials as are used in connection with the vault work in the new Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. A complete electric alarm system will also be provided.

The interior of the banking room will be finished with an arched ceiling, richly paneled and decorated in color. The lower parts of the walls in the banking room and the fronts of the counter screen will be faced with marble and the public lobby will, of course, have a marble tile floor. The front of the counter screen will be of wrought and cast iron which will be finished in a bright color to harmonize with the balance of the room. The wood finishings throughout the building will be mahogany and birch.

Exterior sash in the large banking room windows will be steel. All windows on alley on the east will be standard fire windows. Artificial illumination of the banking room will be accomplished by means of forty large lamps and reflectors placed above the ceiling light in the banking room ceiling. These lights will be supplemented by a flood light placed on top of the vault. There will be, in addition to the general illumination, individual lighting for all cages, desks, coupon booths, etc. This method of illumination has been found extraordinarily effective.

What Standard Oil Company (Indiana) Distribution Means to the Home

JAMES J. STARROW, fuel administrator of Massachusetts, says, "Don't burn a pound of coal in October. Cook and heat water for your household with a kerosene stove. It will save you money. It will perhaps keep you out of the coal line next winter. Cooking by kerosene is cheaper than coal. Kerosene can be bought anywhere."

"Kerosene can be bought anywhere"

This statement is particularly true throughout the Middle Western states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), whose distribution service is 100% complete. Kerosene is delivered to the home, whether on a distant farm, in a small town, or in a big city.

Imagination and foresight were required to anticipate the demand for petroleum products which exists today. Permanency in organization, efficient management and close attention to the minutest detail has resulted in establishing within this Company a spirit of service which is expressed in the far-flung system of distribution and delivery which makes every user of petroleum products in the 10 Middle Western States feel certain that his needs will be instantly supplied.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) distributing system represents an investment of over $45,000,000. It includes 25 main stations where complete stocks of products are kept on hand, 3973 bulk stations, 1605 service stations and 7167 tank wagons. It has grown to meet the needs of the present and to anticipate the needs of the future. It is highly flexible and capable at all times of meeting emergencies, such as a coal shortage, in any section of the territory served. This service is available at every home.

To meet the needs of the public it serves is the ideal which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has before it at all times. It is alert to foresee a possible need for its products, and when the demand comes it is prepared to supply it; for example, the possible coal shortage has resulted in an unusual demand for a burning oil for use in home-heating plants, and the Company was ready with Stanolind Furnace Oil, which it had developed for this particular service.

Stanolind Furnace Oil is equal to kerosene in heating value and sells at a lower price. This is another benefit accruing to the public at large, through an efficiently managed big business.

OLD JACKSONVILLE SOPHOMORES OF 1857

(BY ELSLEY MOORE) Member Illinois State Historical Society

The Sophomore Class has always seemed the least interesting in college to this writer. This applies to other classes, or to his own.

Last week the O. J. article was about the Sophomore Prize Ex. of 1857, and it is doubtful if many colleges in the country ever in our early days had men out of a small class, who grew up to as much as these men did.

It is proposed herein to show the life record—briefly—of those who took part in the Exhibition of 1857. They will be spoken of in their order on the program, given a week ago.

W. H. Edgar, '60, was born in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. He attended "Batesman's School" here; entered in '61 in the 33rd Ill. regt., becoming a second lieutenant in the 2nd; studied law and was admitted to the Bar. Two years after the war he spent in business in Mobile and New Orleans; entering newspaper editing on the Jacksonville Republican in 1869, staying until 1886, meantime having been (minority) candidate for Congress; going to Baxter Springs, Kan., and Washington, Mo.; returned to the Republican in Jacksonville in 1888. Thereafter he was Colonel on the staff of the Governor of Illinois, and postmaster at Jacksonville, Neb. Edgar went to Bozette, Neb., to edit The Express, about 1890, remaining there the rest of his active life, and becoming postmaster and a State Senator. He went thence to Chicago, where he died in '17.

John W. Ross, son of Hon. L. W. Ross, M. C. of Lewiston, finished the course at Illinois in '62; studied at Harvard Law School, was admitted by Illinois Supreme Court, practiced, was four years legislator. Ross was admitted to U. S. Supreme Court in 1873, settled and practiced in Washington, D. C. Mr. Ross was made an L. D. in 1886, was postmaster, President of the District Schools and Commissioner of the District of Columbia. Edgar and Ross were Phis in College. Ross died about 1910.

George Welch, from Jonesboro was a fine young man, of whom the writer does not know the history. But he was a Sigma Pi.

Thomas C. King, son of David, did not graduate, was a clerk in Ayers Bank, was a fine fellow, a Sigma Pi. He died quite young.

Thomas Booth, a fine looking son of Pike County, Mo., became a prominent business man of St. Louis and was a President of the Merchants' Exchange there. He was in the Class of 1860, I. C., and a member of Phi Alpha Society. Mr. Booth married one of our prettiest ladies, Miss Louise Warren. He died comparatively young.

Robert H. Bulkley, was born here, son of a leading man, and his mother was of the noted Harrison family of Kentucky. He was in the Class of '60, I. C., and was a member of Sigma Pi society. He studied law, and practiced in Chicago, where he still resides; probably the only survivor of the Sophomore Prize Ex. He was graduated young John B. Turner, son of Prof. J. B. Turner, here, was graduated in '60, I. C., and soon went down on a farm on the Illinois Central R. R. at Butler. Mr. Turner made his home, and pursued his life work as a farmer, at that place until last year. In college he was a member of Sigma Pi Society.

William L. English, son of the well known Dr. Nathaniel English who came here in 1836, was born in Jacksonville, and was graduated in the Class of 1860. Mr. English taught school a short time, in Rusville, then studied law here with Morrison and Epier, was admitted to the Bar, and practiced his profession here a short time. He enlisted in the 101st Ill. regt. and was adjutant of it.

Locally, conditions as regards finances are excellent. Sanjanton county never was so well situated so firmly set in sterling business administrative methods as now. I don't believe voters are going to chance a return to disturbed economic conditions by swapping horses in the middle of the stream. The Republican party may have some reforms to put in force. The party is big enough to put them in force. It will attend to its own house-cleaning in preparation for 1924.

"Meantime, I believe the discreet thing for my Democratic opponent to do would be to run on a Democratic platform instead of a quasi-mugwump issue, intended to invite favor from all and confidence from none."

After the War Mr. English came back here, and was City Clerk or Attorney.

After that he secured a commission as first lieutenant in the 15th U. S. Infantry, and served mostly in the West, until August, 1877, when in the Custer campaign, he was shot, and died August 20th.

In College Mr. English was a member of Phi Alpha Society. William P. Callon, son of Squire Callon, of Bethel, was a native of Indiana, who was brought to Morgan county when a little child. He was graduated from Illinois College in 1859, and was a member of Phi Alpha Society. He studied law with Judge Cyrus Epier, and was admitted to the Bar here in 1860.

Mr. Callon became first lieutenant in the 4th, Ill., Cavalry in August, 1861, and soon after acting assistant adjutant general to Gen. Edward Hatch's division of cavalry under detail from the War Department.

After the War Mr. Callon practiced law in Lincoln, Ill., until 1872, with the exception of two years spent as Indian agent at Omaha, Neb. He probably acquired the title of Major—by which he was afterwards known, then. Major Callon came here in 1872, and practiced his profession here almost until the end of his life. He had married a Southern lady, and they had a plantation in Mississippi, where they spent a good deal of their time, finally going to there to live.

The Major was an alderman here; a member of the House, and a State Senator of Illinois, in 1878-1882.

He died about 1905. Franklin Adams, was born here, the son of Dr. Samuel Adams, the loved and revered professor so long connected with Illinois College, was graduated from Illinois in 1860, with the Valedictory Address, at the age of seventeen years. He was a member of Sigma Pi.

One day in the summer of 1864 Frank went to the 33rd (Norman) regt., and enlisted. He rose rapidly in rank, becoming a Captain, with brevets of Major and Lieut. Colonel, and served thru the War, after which he was connected with a Surveying party on the Pacific Railroad—that mighty highway on which the travelers and commerce of two hemispheres are transported East or West.

It is said: "Peace hath her victories no less renowned than War. And it was no less helpful to mankind for the young soldier to assist in that great work than it had been to face opposing cannon and to free a race."

It cost Frank Adams more than the War had done. For in his twenty-fifth year "The Old Doctor's" only son gave up his life in the public service.

Edgar, Ross, Welch, Booth, Bulkley, Turner, English, Callon and Adams. Each and all of the top have done a life's work, and only Bulkley is left to recall his fellows in College and at work.

MISSION CIRCLE AT ROODHOUSE MEETS

M. E. Society Met at Home of Mrs. F. A. Plahn. Recently—Other Roodhouse News.

Roodhouse, Oct. 24—The Mission Circle of the M. E. church met recently at the home of Mrs. F. A. Plahn. Mrs. Nora Mason gave the missionary texts in the devotional services. Mrs. Fred Craig reviewed the first chapter of the text book, "Building" with India. Rev. Cole discussed the present conditions in India. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Ben Davis served refreshments. Rev. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick of White Hall were among the visitors.

The rapidly increasing use of radio and the demand for receiving sets and supplies compelled A. H. Cain to put in a complete stock of receiving sets at his garage in the northeast part of Roodhouse.

Mr. Cain was one of the first in this section to install a radio receiving set and has one of the finest outfits obtainable. His experience with the various makes has enabled him to acquire a knowledge of the workings and adaptability of different instruments.

The Ladies of the Methodist church will give a chicken dinner in the basement Tuesday at 6:00 o'clock.

Miss Lucille Mellon of Jacksonville is the guest of Miss Lucille Arnold of Roodhouse. Miss Mellon sang a solo Sunday morning at the M. E. church.

WILL OF MRS. JAMES PLACED ON RECORD

The will of the late Mrs. Mary James was filed for probate yesterday in the office of County Clerk G. L. Riggs. Mrs. James made her will in November, 1913, and named her sons, L. N. and Clifford James as executors. After providing for the payment of debts, Mrs. James bequeathed 54 acres of land located a few miles northwest of the city in 15-15-10, to her son, L. N. James, and to her son, Clifford James 44 1-2 acres of land in the same locality.

It is provided that the land shall go to the sons for life, then to their wives if surviving, and afterward to their children. In the event of the death of either one of the children the title to the entire acreage is to pass to the children of the other.

It is provided also that L. N. James shall pay Clifford James for the buildings on the land willed to him an amount sufficient to equalize the bequests.

Is this your shoe trouble?

Do you wear a hole in the sole of your shoe, at the ball of the foot? Many people do, and they say the shoes are no good—poor leather, etc. The trouble is in your feet and not the shoes.

This shoe condition indicates that the arch across the ball of your foot has broken down, and the bones pressing against the soles will wear out any leather in a short time.

Dr. Scholl's Foot Comfort Appliances

will absolutely relieve and correct this condition by raising the arch to its natural position. Will make your shoes wear longer, preserve their shape and give you wonderful foot comfort. Come to our Foot Comfort Department and get a Free Demonstration

WILL NOT PROTEST IOWA U. SAFETY

URBANA, Ill., Oct. 24.—The University of Illinois football team will not protest the "safety" which gave Iowa the higher score in the 8 to 7 game last Saturday at Urbana it was said today. Altho Auger, an Illini left tackle, was the first to recover the ball at it rolled haphazardly across the Illini goal line the fact that Engeldinger, Iowa left tackle, gave the pig skin the motor power, decided the game for his team.

A dispute arose over this safety, some officials declaring that the goal was not a safety and it was believed that Illinois might protest the game but Coach Zupke said that according to all rules Iowa deserved the game.

The safety in question occurred at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Illinois had the ball into play on its twenty yard line after Minnick, Iowa right guard, had punted over the Illinois goal. Engeldinger broke thru and blocked the punt and the two tackles raced for the ball which rolled over the goal line. Auger retrieved the pigskin but a safety was ruled.

Notes from the Big Ten Camps

ILLINOIS, Oct. 24.—Coach Bob Zupke sent his Orange and Blue Indians thru a rough and tumble scrimmage this afternoon to toughen the Illini for the Michigan battle at Ann Arbor Michigan Saturday. The forward wall has been playing stalwart football, but the backs are slow. Woodword has not hit his stride, Clark is still out and Happeny is the only back who promises to be in fighting trim. Mellwain practiced punting and passing to Captain Wilson and Rockasek.

MICHIGAN, Oct. 24.—The Michigan coaching staff, searching for a linesman to replace Vandervoort, who was injured at Columbus last Saturday tried out White, Blumheke, Steele, Garfield and Slaughter today. There is a possibility it was said that Eddie Johns may be shifted from a guard to a tackle berth in case none of the other men are acceptable.

A growing feeling that Michigan will encounter real opposition from the Illini was noticeable today. Coach Yost believes that the Wolverines will be forced to play a much harder game than they did at Columbus.

Indications point to a capacity crowd in the stadium Saturday.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Displaying a spirit of determination to overcome any obstacles that may be put in their way by the Princeton football team in the inter-sectional contest Saturday, Coach Stagg's football warriors today continued their late afternoon practice. Behind closed gates at Stagg field, and until long after dark the preparatory work continued.

According to present indications Pyott and Thomas seem certain of starting the game. Thomas will be called upon to bear the brunt of the marching attack. The choice for quarter is said to lie between Mc Masters and Heile, with the former favored at present.

MINNESOTA, Oct. 24.—Two hours of scrimmage against the speedy freshmen eleven made today's workout the stiffest of the season for the University of Minnesota football team for preparation for Ohio State Saturday. Continued improvement was reported in the condition of Cox and Abrahamson, first string linebackers who were injured in the Northwestern game last Saturday. Both are expected to return to the line up in a few days.

GENERAL WOOD BACKS ATHLETICS

MANILA, P. I.—Expressing his approval of athletic sports in general and wrestling and boxing in particular, Governor General Leonard Wood has announced he hoped every city and town in the Philippine Islands would be combined in search of a strong team to compete in the Far Eastern games at Osaka, Japan, next May. "I believe in clean sport, and athletic training," said Governor General Wood. "Sound athletic training makes better men physically, cultivates the spirit of fair play and the idea of give and take. It increases a man's self-confidence, and builds up a physical condition in order to attain which there must be an observance of self-restraint, good habits and sound moral principles. All-around athletic training should be built up in the Philippines in every possible way, especially in the schools. I wish every boy in to islands knew how to box, and to wrestle, and to do both well. They would be better citizens. The tremendous increase in the morale, the self-confidence of a man that is engendered by boxing, wrestling and other hand to hand sport is of incalculable value in any crisis of his life.

"With reference to the Far Eastern games to be held in Osaka next year, we ought to search every city, every municipality and every barrio in the Philippines for

MERE MATTER OF EXTRA KICKING

That is What New Rule Means to Players of Foot Ball

By BILLY EVANS

NEW YORK—Baseball numbers among its enthusiasts many football stars of other days.

Even the football is crowding baseball slowly but surely from the sport map the world series proved a magnet that overcame the lure of the gridiron.

At the opening game of the series I saw a score of famous former football stars. Some were players who have been out of the game only a few years. All of them seemed perfectly willing to put aside their fondness for the gridiron game until after the world series.

Stars Not Enthusiastic
Several of these old stars saw the first grid games of the year, in which the big teams of the east took part. None of them seemed to enthuse over the new rule which gives the team making a touchdown the right to make one play from scrimmage.

Most of the old stars feel that the new play will not produce the thrills that were expected of it. In the opening games practically every eleven elected to try for goals from the field after scoring a touchdown. That is, an off scrimmage plays after touchdowns the team having the ball tried to score the extra point either by a drop kick or goal from placement.

Studying Drop Kick
I dropped over to the Harvard stadium while in Boston to look over the Crimson squad.

good material. There is no reason why there should not be and there is every reason where there should be a trial in all the schools beginning with the university and high schools to pick out boys who have special qualifications and who promise to make good material to be worked on and developed with a view to participation in the Far Eastern games.

"The winning of these games means a great deal. It will mean that the Filipinos have physical courage, endurance and skill to an extent which enables them to triumph in competition over all other Eastern peoples. If we take hold of this systematically we shall be able to get a team which will be a sure winner, and this we must do if possible."

MEYERS MATCHED TO MEET ENGEL

RECEIVES SEVEN MEDALS FROM BRITISH
Rockford, Ill.—Wendell Phillips Loomis has received seven medals for courageous service during the world war. He has just received two medals, one gold and one silver, from the British Royal Air force for distinguished service. He was a first lieutenant in the British air forces. He is the only surviving member of the class of student aviators who entered ground school with him in England.

LOCAL RESIDENT ON BURNED STEAMER

Mrs. Leahay Hayden Oldest Passenger in City of Honolulu—California Paper Tells of Her Thrilling Experiences.

Mrs. Leahay Hayden of Jacksonville was one of the passengers on the ill-fated City of Honolulu, burned in the Pacific ocean Oct. 13. Mrs. Hayden was with her sister Mrs. Jessie Overman, and in a recent article in the Riverside (Calif.) Daily Press their thrilling story of the disaster is told. Paragraphs from the press are given below, a paper having been received by a local friend of Mrs. Hayden. The Jacksonville woman evidently displayed a fine degree of courage at the time of the disaster.

"The worst thing we had to fear was the drifting in the life boats all night until the Thomas could reach us," said Mrs. Jessie Overman, a survivor of the City of Honolulu, who is visiting friends in the city, "and you can imagine how happy we were when we sighted smoke about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. We had been told that the Thomas would get to us, and as that boat was 300 miles away, we thought we would have to spend the night in the lifeboats. But the West Paralon was only about forty miles away, and came to us early in the afternoon."

Mrs. Overman and her sister, Mrs. Anna Hayden, were among the passengers of the City of Honolulu on the fatal voyage. They had planned to spend some time in Riverside with friends, and expected to return there in six months, and Mrs. Hayden, who has been visiting her sister during the summer, was to return next spring to her home in Illinois. Their earlier plans will be carried out, they say.

The Oldest Passenger. Mrs. Hayden, who is 74 years of age, was the oldest passenger on the boat, and her remarkable self-control won the admiration of her fellow voyagers.

About 5 o'clock Thursday morning the sisters awoke to find their stateroom filled with smoke. They had not heard the earlier alarms, and had decided to find out what the trouble was when they heard their stewardess call: "No, no, they are not all out." Mrs. Overman opened the door of the stateroom and called: "Three twenty-seven," their stateroom number. Soon a voice called to them to stay where they were and a group of men came to get them. The rescuers wore gas masks to enable them to go through the dense smoke which was pouring down the corridors.

Wet towels were wrapped around the women, and their heads were covered so they could be taken through the smoke. Mrs. Overman had dressed fully, but Mrs. Hayden had taken time to get her checkbook and had time only to slip on a kimono and sweater over her night clothes. She caught up a coat as she was leaving and a black silk skirt.

The passengers were taken to the deck of the steamer, and there, as they waited for the lifeboats, Mrs. Overman saw Mrs. Hayden's traveling bag on the deck. In it she had thrust a few articles of clothing before leaving the stateroom, but the bag had been left behind. She got the bag and so saved a few articles of dress for each of them.

Mrs. Overman and Mrs. Hayden, with several others, were called to the other side of the boat, which was high above the water. There they were put into the captain's life-boat, which was lowered to the water. For food they had bread, hard-tack, boiled potatoes and water. Many of the passengers were seasick in the small boats, but both Mrs. Overman and Mrs. Hayden escaped this unpleasantness.

When the West Paralon steamed into view the drifting passengers cheered heartily, for they had expected to be in the small boats for many dreary hours more. During the morning they had told stories and tried to be cheerful, but after their sketchy lunch a silence had fallen upon everyone in the boats. The cheers were taken up by all the passengers, and a feeling of happy relief brightened the faces of all.

Used Rope Ladders. While the survivors were being taken up the rope ladders to the decks of the West Paralon they were secured by ropes under their arms to that there was no danger while ascending the twisting ladders. Mrs. Hayden was given the captain's stateroom, and she and her sister, with two girls, enjoyed special accommodations. Mrs. Hayden has not been well for some time, and had been under the doctor's care on the City of Honolulu.

During the night the Thomas reached the scene of the burning ship, but the captain of the West Paralon refused to have the passengers transferred during the night, as he had told them they could have a full night's sleep, and felt that they should not be disturbed. In the morning, as the sea was calm, the transfer was made.

"The officers and men of the West Paralon were perfectly lovely to us," the sisters said this morning. "There were no arrangements for passengers on board the ship, and so the men turned out their beds and rooms so that the women could have them. We were sorry to leave them the next morning."

The Thomas, which is a transport, was filled with soldiers and their wives and children, and with the Honolulu's passengers 1,700 people were aboard the transport. Altho the Thomas was five weeks out of port the food was splendid, and the wreck victims were accorded every courtesy and assistance from the officers and passengers.

When the Thomas was near San Francisco Washington sent a radio telling the ship to change the course to Los Angeles. There the survivors were welcomed by anxious friends and relatives, who had been waiting for long hours to see the loved ones.

RESCUED!
GIRL'S EYES MIRROR NEAR EAST TRAGEDY

MISS NALALIA NAKKASH, IN WHOSE EYES IS MIRROR-ED THE TRAGEDY OF THE NEAR EAST.

By NEA Service. SHERBROOKE, Quebec.—No thrilling tale of adventure or story of dire suffering will ever hold any interest for Nazalia Nakkash, one of the first Armenian refugees to reach this country following the recent bloody advance of the Turks in Anatolia.

Altho only 15, she has had crowded into her life during the past few weeks enough tragedy to rival any work of fiction. Only her youth saved her from being driven insane by the horrors of her experience.

Nazalia's family lived in Mar-din, Armenia. When the victorious Turks swept thru, her uncle and brother were arrested along with 500 of the more important citizens of the town.

All were taken away and were put to death. A couple of days later two other brothers were arrested, thrown into prison and subsequently tortured and killed.

Women Carried Off. A number of women and children were taken away for Turkish slave market and harems. Nazalia and her mother were among those marched out in a miserable procession.

They were finally taken to Ras-ul-Ain after suffering terribly all along the way, many dying from hunger and brutalities. There a group of American missionaries tried to help them but they were soon driven out by the Turks on the grounds that they had been assisting Armenians.

Friendly compatriots tried to help the sufferers but it was too late. Exposure had so weakened the women that most of them died. Nazalia's mother was among them.

The American missionaries came back shortly afterwards and the girl was taken care of. After many fruitless attempts permission was secured from the Turks to send 500 orphans to Syria. Nazalia was included in the party.

On her arrival at Aleppo she received news that her brother, who is a photographer here, was on his way from Canada to take her home with him. After 10 years of separation brother and sister were reunited at Beirut.

Her dark eyes still hold the horror of the horrors thru which she has passed.

During the rescue by the West Paralon he took pictures of the passengers in the boats and climbing up the ladders.

After the passengers had been transferred to the Thomas they were called into one of the salons for a service of thanksgiving. The service was very impressive, and as the passengers were filing out afterwards they discovered this same movie man grinding out pictures of them. Arrangements have been made to show the films in Honolulu and doubtless they will be shown thruout the country here.

When the fire was first discovered on board the "Honolulu" the passengers were told to leave their bags aboard the ship, as it was expected the fire could be controlled soon, and the passengers would be able to return for their bags, if not to remain on the boat.

Humorous stories of the fire are now being told, with the participants of the tragedy sitting safely in rocking chairs and telling their stories to admiring friends. The bravery of the women forms the background for most of the stories, grave or gay.
